CLEAN UP DAY CLEAN UP DAY

Mayor Trevor J. Clatfelter and your Village Board of Trustees are pleased to host the 9th Annual Village “Clean-Up Day”. Our Village President, Board of Trustees, staff and volunteers will be on site at Waldrop Park bright and early 8am, Saturday, May 4, 2019 along with Affordable Shred, BLH Computers, Inc, Midstate Metals and Republic Services to assist Sherman Residents to responsibly recycle unwanted items. Please note Affordable Shred (document shredding service) will accept up to 5 boxes per resident and will be available only from 8am to 9:30am.

Most drop-offs are free of charge while others required a nominal fee. (see details on the opposite page)

Our Village Clean Up Day is for SHERMAN RESIDENTS ONLY! Please have your ID ready for proof of residency and please be patient as this is one of our busiest programs offered to Village Residents. Follow the arrows and instructions from volunteers. Volunteers will be easy to spot as they will be dawned in bright neon vests ready to accept your items. EVENT STARTS AT 8AM AND ENDS PRECISELY AT 11AM.

Please contact us at Village Hall should you have questions (217) 496-2621 or email us at info@shermanil.org. or visit our website at www.shermanil.org or like us Facebook to stay up to date on the latest news in your Village. We are here to serve you.

ITEMS ACCEPTED INCLUDE FURNITURE, JUNK, METALS, PAPER, ELECTRONICS (see opposite page for details).
